SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess or use a controlled substance.
 - You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court. (check if applicable)
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
3. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3363 and 3363A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
4. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: SETH M. RECTOR

CASE NUMBER: 18-CR-103

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
2. You shall not leave the State of Wisconsin without permission of the court or probation officer.
3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
4. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
5. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
6. You shall not knowingly go to places or enter buildings where controlled substances are unlawfully sold, used, distributed, or administered.
7. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
8. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
9. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
10. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

DEFENDANT: SETH M. RECTORCASE NUMBER: 18-CR-103*SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The offender shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, papers, computers, other electronic communications or data storage devices, or media, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The offender shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the offender has violated a condition of their release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
2. The offender is to participate in a program of testing to include not more than six urinalysis tests per month and residential or outpatient treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as approved by his probation officer, until such time as he is released from such program. The offender shall pay the cost of this program under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer. The offender is to refrain from the use of all alcoholic beverages throughout the supervised release term.
3. The offender shall not have intentional one on one contact with unrelated children under the age of 18 unless approved in advance, in writing, by his supervising probation officer, and then only in the physical presence of a responsible adult who has been advised of the offender=s criminal history of inappropriate contact with minors, and shall report within 8 hours to the probation office any unauthorized contact with children.
4. The offender shall participate in a program of sex offender mental health assessment and treatment, as approved by his supervising probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program by his supervising probation officer. This assessment and treatment may include the polygraph to assist in planning and case monitoring. Any refusal to submit to such assessment, treatment or testing as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of supervision. The offender shall waive confidentiality between his supervising probation officer and the sex offender treatment provider and shall pay the cost of this program under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer.
5. The offender shall not possess any material depicting sexually explicit conduct, or nudist visual material, nor shall he knowingly patronize any place where such material is available or use any electronic equipment, including a computer, where such material can be obtained or viewed.
6. The offender shall cooperate with and participate in a computer and internet monitoring and restriction program, and pay the cost of such program as directed. As part of this program, the defendant shall not possess or use any device with access to the internet without permission of his probation officer and absent the monitoring program; and shall not possess or use any data encryption or data erasure technique or program. The defendant shall provide his probation officer a complete inventory of all electronic and Internet capable devices; a list of all of his computer pseudonyms, passwords, and logons; and consent to his probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer(s) equipment, which may include hardware, removable storage/media devices, and copying of all data from the computer(s). This also includes removal of such equipment by his probation officer, when necessary, for the purpose of conducting a more thorough examination.
